

CONTACT : M. Xavier GALLOT-LAVALLEE
Tél. : + 33 (0)4 79 65 08 90 – contact@groupemnd.com

Introduction

The "Montagne et Neige Développement" Group is an association of international companies who are leaders in the :

- Development and protection of ski areas and sports sites
- Protection of the issues facing the natural risks

From R&D to production, commercialization to installation, the MND Group offers a wide range of innovative and performing products and services to ensure the success of your projects.

- TAS specializes in preventive systems for natural risks such as avalanches
- MBS-ADIC specializes in protection of ski areas and leisure sites
- S.2.M. specializes in the service and supply of replacement parts related to the maintenance and improvement of snow making systems
- MND Engineering is a research and engineering company specializing in R&D and risk prevention engineering including phenomenon, structure and protection assessment

Politics of MND Group

Our mission is to design and supply innovative, long-lasting products and services, which contribute to the success of our customers.

We make a commitment to respect the legal rule of products and to prevent any pollutions.

As experienced over the last years, M.N.D. is a major international operator in its activities with a strengthened turnover in growth of more than 20 % a year.

Our systems of management " ISO 9001 and 14001 " help us for our organization and improve continuously our products and services to satisfy our customers.

